

The South Jordan Chamber of Commerce and South Jordan City are doing their part to help local residents live a healthy, happy life. They're sponsoring the first "Health, Let's be Well, Fair" Monday, Oct. 8, 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the South Jordan Leisure Aquatic & Fitness Center, 10866 South Redwood Road.

"This is much bigger than we ever thought our first annual event would be," said event organizer Kim Williams. The fair will be set up on the first and second floor of the aquatic center.

The free event will include South Jordan City Fire, Police, and various demonstrations from the aquatics center programs and other vendors. Subjects covered will include a wide variety of medical and personal care issues, with various state programs for people with disabilities and blind/deaf and medical supply vendors.

There will be free blood pressure, bone density, glucose and cholesterol testing and general information for people with health issues along with health vitamins/drinks.

Representatives from the Alzheimer Association, Friends for Sight, Valley Mental,

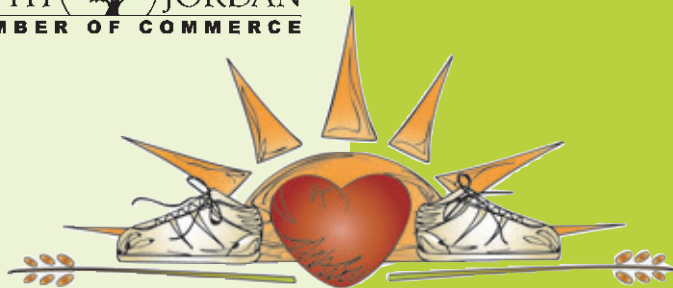

State of Utah and USOR will be on hand to answer questions.

The American Red Cross will bring its bus and will have an active blood drive. Looking for donors for scheduled times that night. Call Kim Williams at JCPenneys and schedule now, 495-4975 Ext. 200.

Several local businesses including Costco, JCPenneys and Albertsons have donated prizes raffles and giveaways but organizers are looking for more.

Currently 25 vendors have signed up but the Chamber is looking for others that want to participate. There is a minimal vendor fee, call the Chamber or Kim Williams for details.

Fair sponsors include Daybreak, Don Aslett's Cleaning Center, Health Mate, Inc., Jordan Valley Medical Center, Keller Williams, Progressive Eye Care, Stan-mar Health & Nutrition, South Valley Journal, Total Health & Fitness, University of Phoenix, University of Southern Nevada, and Utah Weight Loss & Natural Hormone Clinic.
